

Pamela L. Titland

June 11, 1943 - December 15, 2014

Pamela L. "Pam" Titland was born June 11, 1943, and passed away peacefully on December 15, 2014, after a long battle with illness. She was born in Seattle and moved eight years ago to the Wenatchee, WA area. Orondo was her home. Pam worked for the Seattle PI newspaper, Union Pacific Railroad, Pioneer Manufacturing in Arlington, WA and Quantum Windows and Doors in Everett, WA. She truly enjoyed her family and friends. She loved to garden and cook. A trip to any destination was an adventure. She loved life and living it to the fullest.

Pam is survived by husband, John; son, Colby, and daughter-in-law, Pam; daughters, Danielle and Christy; grandson, Collin; step-granddaughter, Gabriella; sister, Melanie and her husband, Steve. She leaves behind a large family with many cousins, along with many friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, William and Libby Tait; and brother, William Tait.

In lieu of flowers, it would please Pam if donations be made in her name to Central Washington Hospital Hospice. The care they gave to Pam was most comforting and caring.

Pam definitely made an impression on all whose paths she crossed. Although she will be terribly missed, she left behind a lifetime of memories and love. Rest in Peace, Sweet One. Please express your thoughts and memories on

Rest in Peace Pam. I love you so much. You were the kindest, sweetest, and most quick-witted woman. I am truly grateful to have been one of your grandchildren and will remember your beautiful garden, delicious food, and love for life as long as I live. XOXO - Gabriella
