“ My name is Karen MacPhail, and my mother Joanne Hanson lives at Colonial Vista and that is how I met Pat. When she moved in there, about a year ago, she sat at my mom's table at meal time. I would sometimes join mom for meals and that is how I got to know Pat. For the past 6 months, I have visited Pat in her room, brought her flowers and just visited with her. She created a soft place in my heart and I loved her! She would tell me stories of her life and we would laugh! She told me once how she and James (her fiance) went down to the Wenatchee river and cooled off with a nice swim. We talked and prayed about her getting a new liver.... I was unaware that she was also dealing with cancer... I am so sorry. My family and I have a little non-prophet ministry that re-purposes flowers and takes them to nursing homes and hospitals. Pat was always on the top of my list when I was able to bring flowers to Colonial Vista. I am sorry for your loss and I miss seeing Pat. May it bring comfort to you, that Pat brought a joy to my days as we visited, reminisced and talked about Jesus. I believe she is with Him today.

Sincerely Karen MacPhail
