

Patricia Irene Gudmundson

June 7, 1920 - September 6, 2013

Patricia Irene Gudmundson, 93, of Wenatchee, passed away on Friday, September 6, 2013.

She was a lifetime Wenatchee resident and she and her husband, Kris, owned and operated Gudmundson Orchards and she also was a cosmetician for 25 years at Thrifty Drug.

Survivors include her daughter, Joy Reese of Wenatchee.

Graveside service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, September 13, 2013 at Evergreen Memorial Park in East Wenatchee, WA. Visitation will be held on Thursday, September 12, from 1-7 p.m. at Jones & Jones - Betts Funeral Home.

Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com. Arrangements are by Jones & Jones-Betts Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

MM

“ Patty and my mother Mary were best of friends to the very end. Mom and I would frequently visit Patty at Thrifty Drugs. Her impeccable appearance combined with aromas coming from the perfume bar led a young boy to think of Patty as the most beautiful woman in the world. The "Club" and Community Hall on Wenatchee Heights were their favorite social outlets. Those of us raised on "The Heights" during the 1940s-1970s will miss people like Patty and Kris, and the community they represented. It was a very special time never to be seen again. Mark Milliken

Mark Milliken - September 23, 2013 at 10:45 AM

JM

“ Aunt Patty - you were surely a "one of a kind" of a woman!!!!!! I will always remember your wonderful apple pies and licorice and the candy bars hidden in your purse. Hair spray in the refrig - well, that was just you!!!! The Kelley sisters are now together again, now...no fighting over a blouse!!!!!! Aunt Patty, tell my mom and dad howdy from me.

Joy, hold the memories of your mom in your heart. She is always with you!!!!

Be blessed today and always - Janet McKee Maser

Janet McKee Maser - September 11, 2013 at 04:53 PM