“ My name is Brandon Parsons. I live in Cashmere, WA. Pat hired me on October 23rd 2011 to walk her dog, Candy. I walked Candy 7 days a week until June 19th, 2013. I only lived two streets up from her. Just 3 minutes away. After each 30 minute walk with her dog, I stayed and talked to Pat for around 30 more minutes. We had the best visits! She could really tell some great jokes, too! She gave great advice, and shared many of her memories and life experiences. I got to know her very well. I have, and will remember her forever, and I know she is with Jesus. She had such great faith in The Lord, and her prayers for my family and me helped us through some tough times. I love and miss you, my dear friend Pat. You were my only friend for that year and a half.

“ My dad is a resident at Maple Lodge in Wenatchee where Pat was residing. I enjoyed many a conversation with Pat during lunch or just sitting in the living room. My favorite memory with Pat will be Thanksgiving Day I walked over with my dog. She was so thrilled to just sit and pet my fluffy white dog and tell me stories of dogs that she had had. We will miss you Pat.

I have known Pat for a number of years. The good years were when she was playing golf at the Leavenworth Golf Course. She was a gracious lady with a great smile. She will be remembered.
