

Patrick Scott McLean

April 12, 1951 - March 4, 2024

Patrick Scott McLean was born April 12, 1951 in Ellensburg, Washington to Mildred Ashman McLean and P.M. McLean and passed away on March 4, 2024 in Wenatchee, Washington, surrounded by love. He is survived by his wife of 45 years, Ann E. McLean, daughter Megan Ann McLean, son Patrick Nicholas McLean and wife, Emily Koenig McLean, his most cherished person, granddaughter Addalyn Grace, sisters Barbara Ann Block of Anchorage, AK and Kirstie Fong of Elk Grove, CA and their loving families. Pat graciously donated his brain to the University of Washington in hope of helping others understand the disease, Progressive Supranuclear Palsy. His family can never express their gratitude for the knowledge received from this institution to help make this journey through life easier. No services have been planned at this time but if someone wishes to make a donation in Pat's honor please do so to the UW Memory and Brain Wellness Center at Harborview. To have known Pat is to truly have known a person who was kind and honest to a fault. He is and will be always missed.
