“ I mostly remember "Ratsy" (as we called her) thinking we were the silliest girls on the planet, always giggling at us and throwing in a few wisecracks with a mild undertone of "shape up, silly girls." She always welcomed me into the Smith home and treated me warmly. Thinking of all of you and wishing you peaceful healing.

“ One of my favorite memories of Auntie Pat was when I was a little girl...
We came to visit Auntie Pat and Uncle Mo in the big city. After dinner Auntie Pat asked if we wanted to go to the "corner store" for something sweet. I had NO IDEA what a corner store was, but I wanted to get something sweet. So we walked down to the gas station on 5th/Western and got a piece of candy. Now whenever I drive by there as an adult, I smile with fond memories of Auntie Pat.

“ Wow I'm in shock she was such a nice lady I have a lot of very sweet warm memories of her. My prayers and thoughts are with the entire Smith family.
