She was an active and confirmed member of the Lutheran Church and enjoyed the fellowship of the Tabitha Circle and worked on quilts for Lutheran World Relief. She was a USDA Master Food Preserver and lived by the adage, “When in doubt, throw it out.” She enjoyed playing cards, games and one arm bandits. She volunteered countless hours of service to the Douglas County Election Board, 4-H Clubs and the Douglas County Historical Society.

She is survived by her husband, Lawrence “Butch” Buse of Waterville; her three daughters, Mardelle (LeeRoy) Jordan of Waterville, Meridith Rood of Edmonds and Amelia “Mia” (Brian) Buse-Stone of North Bend; and three grandchildren, Heath Jordan of Waterville, Abby (Josh) O’Brien of Douglas and Christopher Rood of Edmonds; three brothers, Kenny (JoLane) Danielson of Sprague, Leroy (Barbara) Danielson and John Jr. (Lillian) Danielson of Waterville; and many nieces and nephews.
