“ It was a true blessing to grow up with you and Don and Shane. All of those weekends with Jamie and Trin, Uncle Jim and Aunt Ellen just across the field. My best memory is of everyone lighting fire crackers off under the lawn chairs that 4th of July that it snowed. I love you and I know that you are at peace now. I am so sorry for your loss Shane. Your momma will be dearly missed. Love you Heather K.

Best friends never go away. they just wait untill they can talk again. You darling will be missed by soooo many people to whom you touched their lives. Don. forget that girl. The angel that flew off the shelf when you insisted on fixing a fan that may have burnt down the trailor. A sign that we are taken care of in both worlds. So many memories I have and will continue to enjoy. I love you girl....And in my heart you are still here with me.
