“ The man was a great friend to not only me, but to others that really knew Alan. We spent time conversing the day before his passing, and we did some on the way to west side the Sunday before and back. One thing I said to Alan on that Monday was don't sweat the stuff you can't change and change the things that you can. Most important is to be happy, show love to all, and God will always be there to help with your problems. Just believe, repent, don't judge others by what you hear, and enjoy life. Rest in Peace, my brother. Till we meet again.
