October 22, 1924 - February 10, 2012

Phyllis Faye Such was born October 22, 1924, in Enumclaw, WA. She married her sweetheart Mervin Such in 1942, in Salt Lake City, UT. Together, they lived in many Northwest cities, finally settling in Wenatchee in 1972, where she lived the remainder of her life. Their 66 year marriage was filled with many family Sunday dinners, as well as trips to Vegas, Reno and the National Finals Rodeo. Phyllis loved spending time with her family and pets, and enjoyed visiting with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren and attending their many sporting events. Phyllis will be remembered for her love of family, delicious cooking, sense of humor and unique perspective on life. She passed away peacefully the morning of February 10, 2012, at the age of 87.

Phyllis was preceded in death by her husband, Mervin; brother, John; and sister, Jeannette. She is survived by her sister, Lois of Gig Harbor; sons, Mervin and wife, Kathi of Surprise, AZ, Phil and wife, Bernie of Wenatchee and Joel of Wenatchee; grandchildren, Amber Loidhamer, Amanda Such, Abby Such, Ben Such, Stacy Heinz, Katie Such and Lexy French; and seven great-grandchildren.

The family would like to thank the staff at Colonial Vista Assisted Living and Central Washington Hospital Hospice team for their wonderful care in the last year of her life.
