“ I have known Richard for 13 years. I assisted him with his travel requests. He was always kind and considerate and a great person to have many different conversations with. I will miss his visits to my office and our small talks. He will be remembered forever.

“ I have known Richard for over twenty years. We dated awhile and he was an entertaining, considerate, if not erratic at times, companion. His interest in money and love of children made for interesting conversations. I saw Richard at Costco a few months ago. I hardly recognized him but he was alert and very much " with it" I will miss knowing he isn't on Washington St anymore but am glad he is out of the pain that was his constant companion . He has no worry about his bodily ills now. May he rest in peace.
