“ Mom had a wonderful marriage to a guy who treated her like a queen and I'm so glad they are together again. I will miss the little jig she did whenever she got dressed for the day. She always reminded us that she had ten kids and we had only one mother and she truly was one of a kind! Love you mom!

“ Cal and Rita were a part of my years growing up on the south hill in Spikane, Wa. My parents were very good friends of theirs and I knew them both well. They were wonderful people. I am so sorry for your loss, it is not easy losing our parents.

“ Aunt Rita - so full of life and gave great hugs! A wise woman she still allowed herself to have fun - (especially chasing grandkids)!

May all find comfort and peace in the warm memories you shared with Rita.

“ My best memory of Aunt Rita was when son Tim put a whip cream pie in Rita's face. It was at the Moses Lake Warner Reunion. I can hear her now--Timothy don't you dare!. What a good sport she was a took the whip cream pie in the face! Aunt Rita kept us laughing all the time. I loved her hint of Polish accent. Love you Aunt Rita and the influence you had on my life and others

“ My favorite memories are always of sleeping over at her house. She would tell me all about how great it was to be single, but that when she met Grandpa Cal she told her mom right away that he was the man for her. I'm sure theirs was a great reunion in Heaven!

“ I miss your jazzy self already. Grandma I have so many childhood memories of you and grandpa. Fishing at Great Aunt Evelyn's and grandpa fell in the muck and was missing for hours to show up covered in mud and hearing your sweet sigh of relief and those famous words of yours "oh Cal", when you both came to take care of dad with his 1st open heart surgery, when we went to Florida together when I was in college, when you would ring my bratty neck when you lived with us for 2 months after I was out of college, and finally when you blessed my marriage with your pure presence and in your true style continuously called my husband Brady by the name Brad and always followed it with the words becca you know what I mean and smile at me. I love your spirit and I only hope I can be as kind hearted and loving as you have shown me my entire life. You will be missed my sweet soul. Forever and always. I told dad to tell you to put your Chapstick on before you give grandpa a kiss. I know you are happily by his side watching over us and protecting each of us from evil. Love you endlessly, Becky and Brad ??

“ Grandma was such an amazing woman. I remember visiting her since I was a little kid and the smell of her house was that of her great home cooking, love, and memories. She always had a smile no matter what was going on and loved her family in such a way that everyone should strive to love theirs, as it made everyone jealous that she wasn't their sister, daughter, mom, grandma, or great grandma. She will be missed by everyone who ever met her or that was blessed to come in contact with her. LOVE you grandma...always!
