“ I knew Bob from working with him in MN. But I know him best as a lover of sports, Harleys, rock music and collectibles. I once asked if he was a trade-show junkie and he said "you know it, brother. Gotta get my fun from somewhere." Fun could have been his middle name, He is missed by his work-friends in MN.

“ In the time I worked with Bob, I can honestly say that I never saw him have a bad day. I am sure they came, yet he was constantly a steady, calm person. Not to mention he was never afraid to throw out a funny or sarcastic remark to make even the most mundane meetings fun. Needless to say he will be missed, remembered and honored by all those that had the good pleasure of working with him.

Bob was one in a million. When he left Mn he still kept it touch. Always had some smart comment for me and I loved them. Oh one thumb how we will miss your sense of humor and you. You left your mark that's for sure. Just so you know Bob you will see me again whether you like it or not.
