“ I often think of the great times I spent with Dale (Poppo) helping him coach Roddy's, Palo Alto Babe Ruth League, baseball team. He was always a well liked and respected role model for the kids.

“ Dear Hanan family,
I was in grade school when Dale was in high school playing baseball. What a southpaw he was! I did not know all of the family but played in the band with his younger brother Lynn and his sister Joyce was our band majorette, One year we played in The Apple Blossom Parade. The Wenatchee Chiefs were in town and Entiat's own lefthander Dale Hanan was pitching. What a memory!

So I thank you Dale Hanan for the memories. May you now rest easy. Peace be to you and the Hanan family.
