“ Uncle Bob, Thanks for fixing my electric train back when we lived in Kent. Thanks for not following through on your threat to leave Jimmy and me alongside the Stevens Pass road when we were allegedly misbehaving. Thanks for taking it in stride when my expression completely gave away that great poker hand you were dealt that time in the Eastgate house. Thanks for not killing me in the aftermath of the notorious hornet nest caper. It was thanks to you and Dad that Jimmie and I spent the first six or eight years of our lives thinking our first names were Knothead and Knothead. Thanks for the part you played in my first hand experience with sea sickness -- twice. Thanks for enabling me to see the first car with wrinkles (a yellow station wagon) I had ever seen.

You left a good impression on me. Say hello to Grandma and Grandpa Jordan for us, and also to the aunts, uncles and cousins that preceded you (and the rest of us).

“ I love my Grandfather more than anything! He was always there for me when I needed to talk to him about life or fishing. He gave me some of the best fishing advice ever. When I would come home from a fishing trip I would always bring my catch to show him. I LOVE YOU POP-POP! I will miss you a lot but I know you will always be with me! Cylina
