Robert T. Roberts - Feb 20, 1926 - July 25, 2010

Due to personal reasons the memorial service has been postponed until Spring, date to be announced.

Our precious father passed away peacefully in his home at 10:05 PM on Sunday, July 25th, 2010. He was surrounded by family when he left to join our Lord. He had a full life, born and raised on the Roberts' ranch in Conconully. He joined the Navy at 17 yrs old and retired as a Lt. Cmdr in 1966. He moved back to the ranch, flew for the Forest Service, owned a beer distributorship and experienced several endeavors before final retirement to Lake Chelan and Bouse, AZ.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Wanda Chelan, WA; daughters Cookey (Don) Bickle Mukilteo, WA and Robbie (Bruce) Nordby Redmond, WA; son Bill (Connie) Roberts Okanogan, WA; granddaughters Sarah (Desiree Pittman) Bickle Las Vegas, NV, Kacey Nordby Redmond, WA, and sister Margie (Irv) Sasse Pacific, WA

We will miss his warmth, his love and the witty Bob-isms he shared.

It seems crazy that you've been gone almost 16 years. We're missing you even more than ever today! I hope you celebrate big time, with Gammy, Robbie and all you other family!

I'm sure you know that our little Kacey & Zack lost their 2nd baby girl earlier this week. I know she is there with all of you and Robbie is holding her close! I can't even imagine the pain Kacey and Zack are feeling right now. They are not ready to talk to anyone quite yet, but I know they are a comfort to each other.

Please have a wonderful birthday, and send a little heavenly love to Kacey and Zack!

I love you Daddy and miss you so much!

100 years old is a big deal! Have a great day!

*Love, Coockey

“ Hi Daddy,

It's been a long time since you left, but today it felt like I really needed to talk to you! I seriously can't believe it's been 15 years since you passed! I miss you so much. You shared your wisdom, and I miss that as well!

I have no idea where we go when we pass, but since you, mom, Robbie and all our ancestors are there, it must be a good place! We miss you down here and hope you are happy wherever you may be.

15 years is a long time, but I miss you like it was yesterday!

Love you BIG as the world!

“ Hi daddy,

You cant believe what is happening now. President Trump bombed Iran without the approval of congress! The constitution states that congress is in charge of taking action against another country. I agree that Iran is awful, but they were not a threat to the US!!! The America that I grew up with was never a bully, and was never the aggressor against another country... Trump is a total bully and he wants to be a dictator. He admirers other country rulers who are dictators and wants that kind of power. He does not want to follow our constitution that provides the separation of power. That is what made America different from all other countries, and made us great! Trump wants total power. I don't know if you can see what is going on down here, but I'm afraid Trump wants to show his might to the world with world war 3. I have to tell you, I'm scared!

“ Hi Daddy, I've been thinking of you so much. It's actually 13 years ago today that we lost you. Nothing has been the same since then. We're all doing ok, but miss you so much! Hope you are happy with Mom & Robbie and all our other relatives! We love you and miss you!

“ Hi Daddy, I've been thinking of you so much, all the time, but so much lately. I miss you more than anything! I hope you Mom & Robbie are having fun in Heaven. I can't believe it's been 13 years since we lost you. It just doesn't seem possible! We're going to visit Kacey & family in Colorado Springs in May. Their baby is almost a year old now. Little Kacey is a mommy, can you believe that! Our taxes doubled this year...seriously, Mama Sanford was right, eventually only rich people will be able to afford to live on the lake. Unfortunately, that's not us LOL! We'll figure it out somehow, we always do! Love you big as the world and miss you more than anything XOXO Coockey

“ Merry Christmas Daddy 🎅🌲👤👤🌲. We miss you like crazy, but glad you and Mom are together again. Hope you have a wonderful time with Robbie and all our family in Heaven. It's really cold this year, and our pipes have frozen a couple times...this time we can't seem to get them thawed out. Don sure misses your help! You worked so well together and he admired all your knowledge and skill. Love you and miss you! Looking forward to 2023...it will be a fabulous year! ❤️

Cookey Bickle - December 25, 2022 at 03:51 PM

“ Happy 72nd Anniversary Mom. You and daddy were an inspiration to Don and me. If our love can endure half as beautifully as yours and dads, we will count ourselves lucky. We miss you so much this holiday season and love you more than anything! ❤️

“ Happy Thanksgiving Daddy. 🍗 Enjoy your day with Mom & Robbie. We'll try not to eat too much today, but you know how hard that is on Thanksgiving! We miss you all so much and hope you are happy in Heaven. Have a beautiful day, we love you BIG as the world! ❤️

“ Hi daddy, I'm really glad you and mama are together now. She missed you so much and it was really time for her to join you and Robbie. I miss you all so much, but know you're together and in a better place. Give mama and Rob a kiss from me! I love you! Cookey

“ Hi Daddy, it's 2022 and I just can't believe it's been 12 years since we lost you. We all miss you every day and think about you and use your Bob-isms all the time. Mom is doing ok, but that last fall really took a toll on her. She misses you so much and talks about going home to see you and Rob-ity-bob all the time. Don, Sarah and I are all doing good. The new people who bought yours and Mom's place here at the lake are nice, but that is not what Don and I always pictured when we bought this from you. We totally thought we'd be neighbors and travel south in the winter with you and Mom. Please give Robbie a kiss for me. I love you and miss you so much and will try and be better about writing more often! Love, Cookey

“ I'm so sorry I missed your birthday Daddy. Actually I was down in Wenatchee staying with Mom. She had a couple doctor appointments in a row, and it was easier to stay overnight rather than come down from the lake each day. We all miss you so much and hope you and Robbie celebrated your 93rd birthday together! Mom's been a little under the weather, in fact Bonaventure was under quarantine for the flu. Mom had the flu shot, but is still having symptoms. Hopefully she'll feel better soon. She's happy to be back at Bonaventure but misses you so much. I know you miss her too. We love you daddy and wish you were here with us. Happy Belated Birthday...I promise I won't miss it again!

Cookey Bickle - April 01, 2019 at 07:38 AM

“ Hi Daddy, feeling a little blue tonight...just 3 days after Mom got back from rehab for her hips, on 4/14/18 she fell and broke her right arm. it's a bad break! Poor little thing was in the hospital for over a month, and then at Colonial Vista for another month. She has to do everything with her left hand. She's actually doing really well, and said she knows it's because you are helping her! She's still at Bonaventure, but we moved her into Assisted Living. She just got here yesterday 6/8/18. It's a really new routine, so I'm staying with her a while so we can get her comfortable with it. We bought her a wheelchair and a power scooter. Once she feels better I think she'll have a lot of fun with the scooter. I love you so much and feel better just talking to you. Mom misses you so much...and so do I. Thank you for listening...I love you!

Cookey Bickle - June 10, 2018 at 01:35 AM

“ Happy 92nd Birthday Daddy!!! We hope you're having a great celebration for your 92nd with all our friends and family that have passed. It gives us comfort to know you have friends and family there with you! Mom had a fall, and cracked her pelvis in a couple places. She's in rehab at Colonial Vista. We think of you and the time you spent there every time we go to visit her. She is doing well recuperating so we hope she'll be back to her apartment and friends at Bonaventure soon. She misses you so much...we all do! Please know we love you and hope you are happy. Give Robbie a kiss for us and have a beautiful birthday!!!

Cookey Bickle - February 21, 2018 at 01:50 AM

“ Hi Daddy, Happy 4Th of July weekend! I wanted to let you know we got you headstone all done and Bidly Buddy went up to Comconully and helped them set the stone. It's beautiful! Mom's Garden of Angels! We're going to take mom up to see it soon! Here's a picture. We hope you like it!

Cookey Bickle - June 30, 2017 at 03:29 PM

“ Happy belated Father's Day...we all thought about you so much this year! Pam and Randy came over for the weekend and we talked about how much we all miss you and all your Bob-isms! I got Don a new BBQ grill, and he would have loved for you to help him put it together. Mom is getting really low on money, so we're going to have to sell the property. All of us kids agree that the money will go to make sure she's secure. The septic system is having issues, and man we sure could use your help!! Things always work out they're supposed to, so everything will be fine. We love you so much daddy, and miss you more than you can imagine! Have fun in heaven...we're thinking about you every day!

Cookey Bickle - June 23, 2017 at 04:55 AM

“ Happy 91st birthday daddy! We love you and miss you so much, and think of you every day! We hope that you and Robbie have a wonderful time celebrating your birthday with the angels. We'll be celebrating with you! ❤️🎂❤️🎂

Cookey Bickle - February 20, 2017 at 06:08 PM

“ Wow daddy, you've been in heaven for 6 years! I'm sorry I didn't write on July 25th, but you know how it goes in the summer in Chelan! We all miss you SO MUCH! Mom came up for the summer, but fell and cracked her pelvis. She was in the hospital and rehab for over a month. She's back here now and doing well. She'll go back to Bonaventure in September. We hope you and Robbie are having fun in heaven! She would have been 62 this year! Wow, we totally miss her too. Kacey moved to Colorado to be with Pavel. He's doing well in the service. They have both grown up so much. SJ is doing really well in rehab. That was an eye opener for all of us, including her. She's really getting her life together now. You would be really proud. I've written a book here, guess I had a lot to tell you. I miss you daddy and I love you more than anything. Please be happy and give Rob-ity a hug!

Cookey Bickle - August 19, 2016 at 01:02 PM

“ Happy 90th birthday Daddy! That is a real milestone, We sure wish you were here to help us celebrate! We love you and miss you so much and hope you're doing ok in heaven! If they celebrate birthdays in heaven, please have a "tini" for all of us!

Cookey Bickle - February 20, 2016 at 01:25 PM

“ Oh Daddy, it's been 5 years and a week since you passed. I can't believe it's been that long! It still feels like any minute, you'll walk around the corner and come over and say hello! They say that the grief diminishes with time...so far I haven't found that to be true. I miss you more than ever! Mom misses you every day, she's not the same without you. I hope you're happy in Heaven. You're with your mom & dad, Uncle Lew, Uncle Irving and Rob-ity, so I hope you're not lonely. I think about you and miss you every day. I love you!

Cookey Bickle - August 01, 2015 at 02:53 PM

“ Happy belated birthday daddy! You would be 89 now. You always said you were going to live to be 120!! I sure wish that was true!!! We miss you so much!!! Mom is doing ok, but she misses you terribly! I don't know how you celebrate birthdays in heaven, but I hope it was wonderful! Here's a virtual candle for your birthday. We love you and miss you more than ever! XOXOXO

Cookey Bickle - February 24, 2015 at 07:14 PM

“ Hi Daddy...I just can't believe it has been 4 years since you left us! We miss you more every day! Mom is home for the summer, and is doing well...or as good as can be expected. She misses you so much, she's never been the same since you passed! Kacey and her friend Lilly are living with mom this summer. They're working at Sorrento's. I think they're good company for her, but she spends a lot of time over her with Don & me. That's a good thing, because we love having her here! We wish you were here too!! Hope you are happy in heaven. Say hi to Rob-ity for us. We love you BIG as the world Daddy!!!!

“ Happy Birthday Daddy! I miss you so much, and think of you every day! 88 years old today...that would be a lot of candles LOL, so I just put one virtual candle on your birthday note! I hope you're having a good birthday in heaven. I know you and Rob-ity are there together celebrating. Here's a toast to you! ?? I love you!!!!

Cookey Bickle - February 21, 2014 at 12:57 AM

“ Unbelievable...it's been 3 years daddy! The Memorial we had for you last month was the most moving I have ever seen. Mom was insistent that you should have all the Military honors you deserve, and it was an awesome tribute to you! I miss you more than ever! Every time I try to get in the cold water of Lake Chelan, I think about you! I'm my daddy's girl, I don't like to be cold either. Mom just had her right hip rebuilt, but is actually doing better than she was before. She misses you so much, but I think being able to be warm in Las Vegas for the winter and here in Chelan for the summer is helping her. Life is really crazy down here sometimes. When it feels like there's more change than I can handle, I try and remember how strong and brave you always were and it helps me cope. I miss you so much, and love you more than anything. Take care daddy...you and Robbie have a toast for all of us still here on earth. I know we'll feel the love and know you're with us!!!

Cookey Bickle - July 25, 2013 at 10:44 PM

“ My darling the time is flying by so fast I can't believe you have been gone almost three years and would be now 87. My thoughts were with you sweetheart. If only I could have been with you, hold you, and kiss you I miss you so much. Our life together was perfect I loved every moment of it. God blessed us with three wonderful children. We had such a great life with love and happynes. When we lost our sweet Robbie, only a year after you it was almost more then I could stand. If it wasn't for the rest of our family I don't think I could have made it. I'm doing ok and feeling fine. My apt. is comfortable, I don't have to clean, do laundry or cook so I try to keep busy with activites. I'm sure you know all that is going on as I feel you close to me. I love you my darling and we will be together again one day soon. Your Loving Wife.

Cookey Bickle - February 20, 2013 at 03:45 PM

“ Hi daddy, wow 2 years today since you've been gone. Time has gone by so fast, but we miss you more every day. Don & I retired in January 2012 so Mom has been at the lake with us most of the summer and she's doing pretty good, but it is hard for her because she misses you so much. We would really like to follow yours & mom's example and become snowbirds, so we talked it over with mom and she decided she'd like to join us. We'll all be in Las Vegas in the winter and back to Chelan in the summer. We found a really nice retirement home a couple miles from SJ & Des. Mom will fly down first and we'll bring her stuff down by car. Sounds like a good plan, but like you always said, "a plan is something from which to deviate," so we're all flexible and will adjust as need be :) We hope to be able to give you a fabulous memorial with a 21 gun salute this June when we return to the lake. Bill & Connie are helping us to get it all set up. Don't worry about mom, she will always have family around her, so hopefully that will help her not be quite so lonely. We love you so much daddy, and miss you every day. Love, Cookey*

Mom's been in the hospital for 3 months with her back, but she's doing better...like you always said, "she's tougher nails" so we hope she'll be able to come home soon! She misses you so much, and I'm sure you miss her too. Are you happy in heaven Daddy? I hope you're not lonely. I think about you every day. I Love You!

“ Hi again Daddy...it's been over 3 months since you've been gone & we all miss you more than ever. It's voting time now & I miss your great political advice. You always kept up on the issues and were a great source of information that helped me make a good voting decision. I miss you so much daddy, we all do! I know you're looking out for us and still sending us good advice. It's so hard for us here on earth to know what it's like in heaven. I hope you're happy. I love you!

So does Don, he's doing a kitchen project and misses your great advice. I don't know what it's like in heaven, but I know you must miss all of us too! I just wanted to let you know how much I miss you and love you! I think about you every day.

“ My Dearest Uncle Bob,

You and Aunt Wanda have always held a special place in my heart and my childhood memories are filled with times I spent with you two.

One of these treasured memories was when I was a little girl around 6 or 7 - I remember adoring my Uncle Bob following him everywhere! I was his little shadow – where Uncle Bob was you could probably find me right next to him as he was working around the Lake (unless of course, it was nap time).... One hot summer day as we were staying at the old homestead, Uncle Bob brought his Rainer Beer delivery truck up to the Lake - he wanted to paint the inside of this big truck. With me being his shadow – I was eager to jump in and help him paint.

The paint color that was chosen to do the job...Well it was a mint green and I not sure if it was Uncle Bob or Aunt Wanda or if it was a couple of cans of old paint mix together or if the paint came from Aunt Edna's – the paint color did look like the same shade Aunt Edna's had in one of her cabin's and I think it was the bathroom?

Uncle Bob and I worked hard that hot summer day painting away....When it was time to clean up – well needless to say, I had paint all over me from head to toe. Since the paint was old – it was oil based and we needed to clean my hands with turpentine – that wasn't the worst part, the worse part was when my mom was worried about the turpentine lingering on my hands. Why do you think this was so bad.....well remember I was only 6 or 7 and I was still sucking my thumb at night as I fell asleep – so my mom and Aunt Wanda decided to impose a device to keep me from putting my thumb and/or fingers into my mouth – What kind of device you ask?- It was socks! They put socks on my hands and - Yes, I cried and cried as I was put down to bed. The crying did not last to long after putting me into bed....I was to exhausted from that hot summer day and painting that big delivery truck with my Dear Uncle Bob - I fell fast asleep – socks and all!! :)

Your love and warmth taught us all – Thank you both for contributing to my treasured memories of childhood and into my adult years.....I love and adore you both.

*All my love and blessings,
Gretchen*

“ Dear Bob - when Cooney first brought me to your home a few years ago you and Wanda made me welcome and I felt like part of the family from the first. I am so glad I had the opportunity to know you and that I was able to visit at least once a year. Going to the lake and seeing you both was like coming home.

You will be greatly missed, by many people. Thank you for all you did and all you were. You'll never be really gone as long as those who cared about you remember and talk of you, and that will be always. Peace and love to you and all your family.

“ Dear Dad,

I remember the times you flew into Spokane airport to visit me at college, and took me and my friends out to dinner. They thought you were so handsome and such a cool dad. I was so proud of you!

You made fly-bys when I was on the fire look-out and dropped me care packages, so I wouldn't be lonely.

When I decided to change the spelling of my name, without question you spelled it like I wanted.

You listened to our music old and new, and gave your honest opinion. You always came and listened to us play, and welled up when we played Tennessee Waltz even though you'd heard it a thousand times.

You made each of us kids feel special. We always knew we were loved

Thank you for teaching me how to live, not just with words but with actions. You lived with wisdom, integrity, honesty, justice and humor...you taught me not to follow the crowd, and think with my own mind.

I love you so much, and will miss you forever!

“ *My dear cousin Bob, so many memories of you as I was growing up. The many family get togethers at Uncle Fred & Aunt Lizzie's home on the lake. Visiting you & Wanda at your lovely home on Lake Chelan was always a treat. Seems like I always learned something new about the history of our family or something very funny!..... You were a special man who worked so hard for your friends and wonderful family. You will be missed.....
God Bless Your cousin, Gloria Christopher*

“ Oh my sweet Papa, I miss you so much already. I am honored that I was able to be with you during your last moments. You were at such peace.

I will always remember the good times we had together. One of my fondest memories from when I was little is when I would get up early in the morning and run and jump into bed in-between you and Gammie. Inevitably we would fall back to sleep and you and Gammie would end up on the farthest corners of the bed due to the fact that I had conveniently spread all the way out occupying the entire bed. Well, at least I was nice and comfortable...

You have always been the most hard working, kind and generous man I have ever known. I make every effort to follow in your footsteps.

I do hear by make this solemn promise to you that I will watch over and take care of Gammie. She's in good hands Papa...

Until we meet again, Sarah Jane
