

Robert "Bob" K. Simpson

October 22, 1953 - September 16, 2010

On September 16, 2010, lifelong Wenatchee resident and family man, Robert K. "Bob" Simpson, who was born in the Wenatchee Valley on October 22, 1953, died in his lovely Squilchuck home, surrounded by his family and a few close friends. Bob is survived by his much loved wife, Terri (Pearson) Simpson, to whom he was married for 20 years; along with his two sons, Nick of Seattle, WA and Shane of Wenatchee, WA; daughter, Dana and his five year old granddaughter, Madison (the light of his life), both of Wenatchee. Bob's immediate family include his parents, the late Floyd Simpson and his mother, Lucille; along with brothers, Michael, Gary and Kelly, who all grew up together here in the Valley. Many of you may remember Bob from the 1971 Wenatchee Panther's undefeated championship football season. Others may remember his love for the game of pool; others for his love of the outdoors, hunting, fishing, hiking and boating. He enjoyed hosting a good party; holidays, birthdays, family gatherings or a pig roast, of which his passion was being the "Master Chef." Family took high priority; he loved us all without reservations. Bob was a good man, whom you could always count on to be there. We will all miss him very much. A Celebration of Life Service will be held on Saturday, September 25, 2010, at 1:00 p.m., at the First Baptist Church, 1301 Maple Street, Wenatchee, WA. Immediately following, please join us for a gathering at Bob and Terri's home on Squilchuck Creek.
