“ Upon meeting Romella, I immediately knew she was unique and very special soul. I immediately loved her. I sent her a dozen yellow roses, with a note, thanking her for sharing her son with me. She walked around Chris’s showroom softly crying, I could tell the tribute touched her heart and then some. Romella loved children, she shared her passion for art with her students, her spirit will live on within us all whose lives she touched. Kisses to heaven my dear sweet mischievous Romella! Loving you was a precious gift. 💕
