“ Memories of Ree, I wish knew where to start. I have known Marie my whole life. Even Married her oldest son Ed in 1974. Marie had a wonderful laugh, she was an awesome cook. Even taught this Washintonion how to make Biscuits and Gravy. She loved her Granddaughters unconditionally, and loved laughing at there silliness, and with Three girls within 3 years of each other there was a lot silliness, and tears. She handled all of that with calmness and love. There were times that she would have all Three of them at counter making biscuits, rolling meatballs, or coloring Easter Eggs. This could go on for a long time. Let me just say that I hope I can be the Kind of Mother in Law and Grandmother that Ree was. I love her as much as my own mother. And will miss her very very Much. Ree give Ed and Pop a kiss for me. I miss them too. Annette Davis- daughter-in-law
