

Roxie L Chambers

July 19, 1926 - May 24, 2015

Roxie L. Chambers, 88, a Wenatchee area resident since 1947 passed away peacefully at home with family, Sunday May 24th. She was born in the small town of Sydney, Arkansas to R.H. & Nora Mynatt July 19, 1926. Lucille grew up with her two younger brothers Roy and Dean Mynatt in the small farming community of Sharp County. She graduated March 1944 at the Sidney High School and within a couple of years headed west with her energetic cousin Neola. They came to the Wenatchee area to find work, adventure, and maybe even husbands. In the spring of 1947 after both getting a job picking fruit blossoms, she met the love of her life, a young Arkansas man, Noah Chambers. After only three months they married in June 1947. After trying to make it a go back in Arkansas they came back to Wenatchee and moved to the Atwood orchards. There she raised three children; Travis, Brenda, Richard. After working for the Atwoods for over 13 years, Noah hired on to Alcoa and moved to town to finish raising their family. She continued to work in the fruit industry as they purchased orchards of their own, while continuing to be a great homemaker. Later, as they became grandparents it gave her new energy, and was a very supportive and positive influence on all her grandkids. Ma will be missed very much.

She is survived by one younger brother Roy Mynatt, her 3 children; Travis Chambers, Brenda Chambers, Richard Chambers and many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.
