

Ruby M. Miller

October 14, 1927 - October 12, 2022

Ruby May (Jones) Miller, born in Pocatello, ID on October 14, 1927 to Luther and Ruby Jones, passed on from this mortal existence on October 12, 2022 to be greeted by her beautiful daughter, son, husband and others that preceded her. Ruby graduated from Idaho Falls High School and St. Mark's Hospital School of Nursing before meeting and marrying Ivan Wayne Miller. After traveling the world, she settled down as a longtime resident of Brewster, WA before moving to East Wenatchee, WA to be closer to family. She was preceded in death by her husband, Ivan Miller, son Ivan Miller Jr., and daughter Judy Miller. She is survived by sons Jake Miller, and Roy (Teresa) Miller, daughters Mary (Brian) Phelps and KayeLee (Ron) Craig, eleven grandchildren, twenty-four great grandchildren, and one great great grandchild. Ruby was an incredible wife, mother, sister and grandmother. She made each of us feel like we were her favorite, cherished our individual uniqueness, never passed judgement, carried a contagious positive approach to life, loved each of us unconditionally, lived a life of gratitude, and taught us all what it means to be loved and to love others. We will miss her dearly. There will be a brief local celebration of life on November 26, 2022. There will be a second celebration of life and interment in Idaho Falls, Idaho on July 22, 2023. Instead of flowers, please make a contribution in her name to the American Cancer Society. Please contact a family member for specifics on the celebrations of life
