“ I was devastated to find out about Ryan's passing. I have known Ryan for many years and loved him as much. He was my first love and we stayed in contact off and on thru the years. Ryan would give the shirt off his back to help someone and he could make you laugh relentlessly. He was a great man and father. He loved his beautiful angels so much. Fantastic artist and making his little inventions and such.. I remember the first time he started practicing tattooing on fruit at home. Not his best work :)Taken way to soon from his family. I am sure he would want all his family and friends to stay strong..

“ I will never forget you Ryan, you were such an awesome person. you will forever be in my heart, I will always remember how you could make me laugh when I was having a bad day, that smile and laugh was so contagious, I will miss our talks.... You are at peace with the Angels now.
