“ I grew up just a half-block from the home where Sarah lived. She was eight years older than I but I remember her as being a beautiful and kind "older kid" in the neighborhood. The family had a horse and allowed only my best buddy Karren Elmer and I to ride Old Blackie. The family home was our center for night games (kick the can, hide and seek, etc.) under the light next to the hay stack. They even let us play in the loft of the barn.

Nelson...you were the perfect match for Sarah. You were blessed with one another. And thank you Nelson for your kindness in giving this boy a summer job after he lost his mother when he was only fourteen years old. You knew a boy in those circumstances needed a role model such as yourself and a job was needed to keep that boy out of trouble. Thank you again for your compassion and for my rescue. You are a fine, fine man. May your sorrow pass gently away and yield to fond memories of your time here with Sarah and the family you love. - Gary Montague
