“ Sharon and I worked together at the VA for the past few years. Along with envying her recent treasures found at the week-end auctions and rummage sales, Sharon and I enjoyed talking about our efforts to grow things, like tomatoes. And whenever my Christmas cactus bloomed, she came in to admire together and started growing her own cutting from it.

I will carry her in my heart and look forward to knowing she is near when my first tomato ripens and the Christmas cactus is in its full glory. May you rest in Peace, dear Sharon.

My sincere condolences to Sharon's family and friends.

I worked with Sharon at the Spokane, VA for 2.5 years. We shared auction hoping together, dinners and laughs at work. After she became ill we stayed in contact and my memory of her includes Christmas Dinner at Maslowe's Resturant at Northern Quest Casino with Sharon gambling and winning $55 and how happy that made her. Our last dinner together was the week before Valentine's Day at Red Lobster. Over our 2.5 years of friendship Sharon gave me little gifts which are around my home and make me smile. I will miss her generosity and loving friendship.
