

Sharron A. Bagwell

October 1, 1939 - June 1, 2010

Sharron Bagwell was born October 1, 1939 At St. Anthony's Hospital in Wenatchee, WA. to Tom and Nancy Bagwell. She went home with her parents to Stayman Flats where she was raised, She, her cousins and neighbors crossed the Columbia River in a wooden row boat to attend kindergarten through the fourth grade. Sharron's grandanfather (Kap) Williamson, Uncle Fred Bagwell and father, Tom Bagwell took turns twice a day rowing them back and forth to school.

She graduated from Chelan High School in 1958. She then went to Beauty school at the Wenatchee Hair Academy, where she graduated in 1960.

Sharron worked in Quincy for a year and a half. She moved to Fairbanks, AK with her cousin jane where she lived and worked for five years. Returning to Wenatchee she worked in the Valley until she retired. Sharron was a great beautician and made many friends that were with her to the end.

She fought a courageous battle with cancer for a year and a half. She was always up beat and continued her life, enjoying luncheons with friends from Chelan. She loved her school reunions.

Sharon enjoyed going to yard sales and lovde to have them. She loved to read and never saw a book store she didn't like, She also collected Thomas Kinkade.

Sharron is survived by her brother, Daniel Bagwell (Lorraine) of Northgate, WA and sisters, Lois McKenna and Bertha Swift of Wenatchee, two nieces Shelly and Jean of E. Wenatchee. All of her loving friends, Penny Malikowski, Wayne and Judi Brown, Shirley and Richard Berquist, Wanda Burris, Ray and Marsha Cockle, Karl and Lynda Dietrich, Dick and Diana Gordon and Debbie Ward.

Her friends would like to thank her wonderful doctors, nurses and care givers for all the love, kindness and health care she received at the oncology department. A special thanks to Doctor Mandy Robertson. She was preceded in death by her parents Tom and Nancy Bagwell and a younger brother.

There will be graveside services in Chelan for family and friends at the Fraternal Cemetery.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Precht Rose Chapel.
