“ Marshall and the Eppich Talbot families,
I am so sorry to learn of Simone's death. So sorry that I cannot join the community in grief and healing; I am not online very much and did not know this happened until recently.
I will always remember Simone's smile, personal encouragement (I was a very anxious person in high school) and charitable activities. In addition to her persistent smiles, my fondest memories were of being included in her German club lunch meetings (I took French), and once being on the bus with her in the snow when our bus slid into the ditch. We trudged optimistically 1 mile through the snow back to the transit center. I don't think I would have been nearly as calm and relaxed if Simone hadn't been at my side during the ordeal. With love and compassion, Teri Strelchun Lanier

Marshall and the kids, words escape me right now because this info was not what I expected to find when I went online today to find a new working number to speak to Simone who didn't respond to my birthday wish text or my emails. My heart is truly aching, and my condolences just does not seem like the right words. She was truly an angel. The kindest person I've ever met. I pray God's continued peace for you and your family and that the memories of her always bring joy, laughter and smiles. May God's loving arms hold you and strengthen you.

“ When Asher was baptised I took pictures with Simone's permission, on condition that I would send pictures to her via email. She was so pleased that I did so. It was such a happy day! Simone and Marshall you have some beautiful children. Please keep in mind the offers of help.if you need help watching your children or taking them to school, or after school care, please call me. I am in the church directory with our home telephone. May God bless you Marshall and all six of your little ones! Martha Kullman
