

Stella Rose (Cade) Matheson

October 6, 1913 - April 18, 2011

Stella Rose (Cade) Matheson

Stella R. Matheson passed away on April 18, 2011. She was born in Dryden, WA on October 6, 1913 to Lawrence and Ethel (McClimans) Cade. She was the 6th of 7 siblings and the last surviving family member. She graduated from Dryden High School in 1931. She later attended Wenatchee Business College. She moved to California in 1939 and while there married Robert Matheson. They lived in several locations in California while working for the California Division of Forestry. They moved to El Cajon in retirement where Robert passed away in 1985. Stella moved to Colonial Vista in 1993 to be closer to relatives and still lived there at the time of her death. She was preceded in death by her parents, sisters Blanch Wood, Edith Pilkinton, Olive Hill, Eva Johnson, Eileen Cade, brother Rodie Cade and niece LaVerne Thompson. She is survived by niece Ethel Williams, Seattle and nephews Dick Voegel, Olympia; Robert Pilkinton, Leavenworth; Lee Enright, Spokane; Larry N. Johnson, Lk. Wenatchee; and Russell Johnson, Florida.

Stella always enjoyed getting involved in church and other organizations wherever she lived and continued doing that as long as she was able. She was a member of Calvary Bible Church in Wenatchee.

Special thanks goes to the staff at Colonial Vista and her other health care providers.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com.

“ My mother, Lena Hopper, is a resident at Colonial Vista. Mom and I became well acquainted with Stella when Mom moved there 10 years ago. Stella was always so cheerful and very friendly. Stella and Gertie Snyder were the best of friends and served coffee at my Mom's 90th birthday party. Stella was a beautiful lady, always perfectly groomed. She was proud of her family and often spoke of a special nephew who took good care of her. I will miss her, but very happy to have known her!
