

Tom Campbell

July 1, 1942 - December 20, 2023

Tom Campbell was born in July of 1942 and passed away in December of 2023 at age 82. He was born in San Antonio, Texas with his two brothers. Later in his childhood the Campbells moved to Yakima, WA where he eventually met his wife, Patti. Tom and Patti got married on April 4, 1964 and moved to Western Washington where they started their family of five children. Tom worked for Boeing as an aircraft painter and was key to the painting of many high profile planes until his retirement after 45 years with the company. Tom loved horses and was a member of the Backcountry Horsemen of Washington. Tom and Patti eventually moved back east to Wenatchee, WA where they could enjoy their sunny days of retirement with their family which includes their great-grandkids. He continued to be surrounded by his family up to his passing at home.

Tom is predeceased by his beloved wife Patti, Mother Mary Alice, Father George, Brothers Michael and Patrick Campbell. He is survived by his five children: Liz (Rob) Sweigard, Mary (Barry) Godfrey, Tom Campbell Jr, Penny (Greg) Hanson, and Joanne (Troy) Alexander. He also is survived by his grandkids: Brittney (Joel) McIntosh, Bryan (Taylor) Sweigard, Riley Campbell, Kailyn Hanson, and Kyle Hanson. Great-grandkids: Owen McIntosh, Karlee McIntosh, Everett Sweigard, Lainey Sweigard.

A graveside service will be held sometime in the Spring. Details currently pending.
