

Tomi Noonan

March 26, 1934 - March 20, 2016

Tomi (Setsuko) Noonan, 81, a resident of Wenatchee, passed away peacefully after complications with pneumonia on Sunday, March 20, 2016. She was born to Hatsutarō & Sayuri Arai in Hokkaido, Japan on March 26, 1934. She was the oldest of four. Tomi married her current husband John Noonan, who was stationed in Misawa, Japan in 1968. They moved to the United States in 1970. Her passion in life was to bring joy to her family and touched the lives of everyone she met. Her meticulous nature showed in her passion for quilting, sewing, and cooking Japanese cuisine. Her talents never went unnoticed. Her biggest joy were her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Noonan is survived by her loving husband of 48 years, John Noonan; only child, Peggy Beck; grandchildren, Patrick, Ashley, and Amber; 3 great-grandchildren, Harmony, Izekeo, and Caleb. Tomi was preceded in death by her parents, 2 sisters and 1 brother.

“No one really dies as long as they took the time to leave us with fond memories.” --Chris Sorenson
