“ Dear Van Winkle Family,

Our friendship with Virgil began many years ago when my father and Elmer shared their active memberships in the Masonic Lodge and both gentlemen practiced the fine attributes of this organization. Through the years there were many opportunities involving orchard equipment transactions that were good for both families. Virgil and his brothers learned from their parents to be honest in every transaction and that it would be beneficial to all concerned.

Sincerely,

Earl Tilly

A soft spoken guy with a heart of gold. Virgil shared our apartment with Gary Dugwyler, Irv and me at Central WA University while getting his degree. And man, could this guy cook! I haven't seen Virgil in years but both he and his brother Jerry were two of the finest examples of a real gentleman. I will never forget him...Jerry, too.
