“ We have known Wally Baer since we moved to Wenatchee in 1996. We had many good times at the Red Lion City side restaurant (usually on Sundays after church--there were usually 9 to 12 people with Ray Matthews, Gladys Adkins and many others the first years we were here. Then later we had big discussions about politics, religion and many good jokes at the Wenatchee Valley Senior Activity Center at many noon time luncheons over the years. He always dressed neatly inspite of his handicaps. We did meet his daughter Adonna once so may the Lord take good care of her too -- we will miss Wally very much.

“ I have known Wally for about 20 years and thought he was a very special man. As of late I saw him frequently at the Senior Center when he came to lunch. Since he had moved to Cashmere he was missed and last Friday Doris and I went to visit him. We had a very nice talk and he kept telling us he was going home Saturday. We asked if he ment Auburn with his daughter but he did not say, just that he was going home. I guess he did go home and now I understand. I will think of him often. Dian Thompson
