“ Bill and I first met when I came to visit my cousin George the summer of 1968. I spent some time with Bill, Jackie, Mike and their mother Ruth. Bill came to visit us in Oakland that following Christmas. I didn't meet up with them again until 2007 passing through with my brother Bob. May he rest in peace. I'm so sorry Jackie. ❤️

“ One of Bill's favorite things was to pick asparagus, can it and give it away to his friends. He always loved the Christmas season and decorated his house with many Christmas lights. Bill, rest in peace, you will be missed.
