

Yu Sing Lee Lam

December 12, 1933 - May 2, 2017

Yu Sing (Lee) Lam , 83, passed away peacefully in her home on May 2, 2017, with her family by her side. She was born December 12, 1933, in mainland China to Chuen Wan Lam and Chun Fung Ng. She married Chan Lam Lee in 1952. She and her husband relocated to the United States in the 80's. Yu Sing, or Poh Poh as everyone called her, was a devoted homemaker. She dedicated her life to her family. She spent much of her time and energy as a caregiver to her children and grandchildren. When Poh Poh was not with her grandchildren, she was tending to her garden. Poh Poh had a green thumb and would produce the finest vegetables in her garden and cook the most delicious food to share with her family. She loved cooking, knitting and sewing and had a keen eye for small details. Poh Poh was able to look at a sweater and would replicate the cardigans for her grandchildren without a pattern. She was also very health conscious, you could always find her doing her tai chi out in the backyard every morning. Poh Poh was a loving Mother, Grandmother and Great-Grandmother.

She is survived by her two sons, three daughters and their spouses; ten grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Chan Lam Lee.
